

Felicia C. Chan

Associate

felicia.chan@jsm.com

Hong Kong +852 2843 2361

Overview

Felicia acts for a range of clients, including banks, multinational corporations, property developers and individuals in a mixture of contentious and advisory matters in the context of commercial litigation, bankruptcy and liquidation proceedings and regulatory investigations. Felicia speaks English, Cantonese and Mandarin.

Experience

- Advised and represented gaming entities and financial institutions in debt recovery and insolvency litigation, including enforcement proceedings and applications for injunctive relief.
- Advised and represented real estate developers and landlords in tenancy disputes including and relating to recovery of possession of leased premises through distraint action and other enforcement proceedings.
- Advised and represented banking institutions in their capacity as corporate trustee of USD bonds in winding-up proceedings against bond issuers in Hong Kong courts.
- Advised financial institutions in regulatory investigations conducted by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority concerning misconduct by employees and alleged breaches of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance.
- Advised and represented multinational corporations and private individuals in recovering fraudulent transfer of funds through liaising with the Hong Kong police and commencement of legal proceedings.

Recognition

- Nominated for the Special Award of the 2020 to 2024 Recognition Scheme for Provision of Pro Bono Legal Service awarded by the Hong Kong SAR Government

Qualifications

Education

- University of Bristol, LLB
- The University of Hong Kong, PCLL, (Postgraduate Certificate in Laws)

Admissions

- Hong Kong
- England & Wales

Languages

- Cantonese
- English
- Mandarin

Professional & community involvement

- Member of JSM Football team and competed in charity matches to raise funds for Branches of Hope, a charity to support refugees and the marginalised in Hong Kong.