Overview

Michael Chao focuses his practice on healthcare-related dispute resolution and regulatory matters. He represents doctors and dentists in disciplinary proceedings before the Medical Council of Hong Kong and the Dental Council of Hong Kong, and regularly advises clients on patient complaints and professional conduct issues. Michael also has experience in handling personal injury and medical negligence claims. He is frequently instructed to defend healthcare professionals and medical organisations against claims involving allegations of medical malpractice and his practice encompasses a broad range of medico-legal disputes arising from the provision of healthcare services. Michael speaks English, Cantonese and Mandarin.
