Clients turn to Terence Tung for his extensive experience and knowledge in cross-border disputes and his specific experience with contentious matters at different levels of the People's Court and the Courts of Hong Kong as well as international arbitration. High-profile corporations rely on Terence for guidance in liquidation and debt restructuring matters. Notably, Terence led the foreign aspects of the liquidation case of Guangdong International Trade & Investment Corporation (GITIC), which was one of the largest bankruptcy cases of a financial institution in China. He also advises on the exit strategy of foreign investors in China and the liquidation of foreign invested companies in China. As the Chinese government steps up its enforcement efforts in regulatory and compliance matters, Terence counsels foreign companies on conducting internal investigations, and he assists in investigations relating to tax and corruption matters initiated by authorities in China and elsewhere. Clients also turn to Terence for his experience with regulatory and compliance issues. Terence is a China-Appointed Attesting Officer appointed by the Ministry of Justice of PRC and an arbitrator of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC). He speaks English, Mandarin and Cantonese.
